Local experts come together to identify and develop plans to tackle big problems in our communities.

1

You give your hard-earned money to make a difference in Yellowstone County.

3

Parents are connected with quality childcare, books, and in-home and virtual coaching.

4

At-risk students are paired with mentors who encourage good attendance and goal-setting skills. They are supported in quality out of school time programs.

6

Service Members and Veterans are connected with resources in times of crisis. Help is easy to find for anyone in need by calling 211 or searching on Montana 211.org.

5

Over fifty partners work together to identify and remedy gaps to prevent addiction, relapse, and drug-related crime.

7

More homeless individuals and families move to stable housing through a coordinated entry process staffed by 18+ organizations.
